

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Soviet Officials

who Have Been Declared PERSONA NON GRATA

since 1953

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

1953

Informant: DWIDOW, Yuriy Vasilyevich
Second Secretary, Soviet Embassy, Washington
Involved in the Farber-Furger espionage case.

Informant: PLISAREN, Lev Konstantinovich
TASS correspondent, The Mirror Declared spy for activities aimed at obtaining military and civilian defense data.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

122

February:

AMOSOV, Igor Aleksandrovich, (Commander)
Assistant Naval Attache, Washington
Declared pug for intelligence activities aimed at obtaining information on U.S. naval vessels and equipment.

KOVALEV, Aleksandr Petrovich
Second Secretary, Soviet delegation to the UN
Expelled from the U.S. for improper activities, including espionage.

KHREMYTSEV, Boris S.
Cultural Attache, Gdansk
Declared pug for attempting to obtain military data.

May:

GUREV, Andrey Fedorovich (Major)
Assistant Military Attache, London
Expelled for attempted espionage.

PYRKOV, Leonid Yegorovich (Lt. Colonel)
Assistant Air Attache, Washington
Declared pug for intelligence activities aimed at obtaining classified military information.

PUPISHOV, Ivan Vasilyevich (Major)
Assistant Military Attache, London
Expelled for attempted espionage.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

1955

Reference:

MARTINOV, Maksim Grigoryevich (Colonel)
Counselor, Soviet Military Staff to the III
Declared spy for intelligence activities.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

1956

- March: HUZNETSOV, Anatoliy Ivanovich (Major)
Assistant Military Attache, Tashkent
Expelled for intelligence activities.
- April: GURKINOV, Aleksandr Konstantinovich
Attache, Soviet delegation to the UN
Declared pug as a result of his part in the "redaction" of five Soviet women.
- April: TURKIN, Nikolay Fedorovich
Third Secretary, Soviet delegation to the UN
Declared pug as a result of his part in the "redaction" of five Soviet women.
- May: YOSCHENKO, Nikolay Vasilyevich
Military Attache, Ankara
Requested to leave Turkey as a result of his efforts to buy military information.
- June: BUBCHENOV, Ivan Aleksandrovich (Colonel)
Assistant Military Attache, Washington
Expelled from the U.S. for engaging in espionage activities.
- June: GLADKOV, Boris Fedorovich (Captain)
Naval Adviser to the Soviet Military Staff, UN
Declared pug for engaging in intelligence activities.
- June: MEROZOV, Aleksandr Dmitriyevich
Naval Attache and Assistant Military Attache, Argentina
Declared pug for intelligence activities.
- July: PETROV, Viktor Ivanovich
Translator, Secretariat, UN
Discharged from the UN for attempting to obtain information on military aircraft.
- August: MIROKHINOV, Petr Sergyevich
Trade Delegation official, Stockholm
Expelled from Sweden for activities against Soviet and Satellite refugees and seeking information on radar equipment.
- August: SHAPOVALOV, Borislav Yefimovich
Second Secretary, Soviet delegation, UN
Declared pug for repeated attempts to achieve the repatriation of Soviet nationals in the U.S.
- October: YERDEK, Konstantin Pavlovich
Second Secretary, Soviet delegation, UN
Declared pug for his part in the abduction (from the U.S.) by her Russian father of an American-born child.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~
~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

122

JANUARY:

SELOUSOV, Viktor Vasilyevich
Second Secretary, ~~Moscow~~
Declared pug as a result of his espionage activities against Sweden.

BRANKOV, Vasily Dmitriyevich
Second Secretary and Press Attache, ~~The Hague~~
Expelled from The Netherlands for conducting espionage and attempting to bribe a Dutch official.

IRILOV, Yuriy Pavlovich (Major)
Assistant Military Attache, ~~Washington~~
Expelled from the U.S. for buying electronic equipment and attempting to buy secret military information.

WILEV, Vasily Mikhaylovich
Clark, Soviet Embassy, ~~Washington~~
Declared pug after the arrest of Jack and Myra SCHULZ and Jacob ALMAN, for conspiracy in espionage activities.

BOGOV, Anatoliy Vladimirovich
Military Attache, ~~Geneva~~
Expelled (not officially declared pug) because of activities incompatible with his position as a diplomat.

FEBRUARY:

KHUCHENOV, Mikhail Leonid (Lt. Commander)
Assistant Naval Attache, ~~Geneva~~
Expelled from Denmark for attempting to obtain secret military information.

APRIL:

GRUSHA, Vladimir Arsenyevich
First Secretary, Soviet delegation, ~~NY~~
Requested by the U.S. Government to leave the country as a result of attempts to obtain confidential documents regarding a report on the USSR's suppression of the Hungarian revolt.

MIRKINETS, Gennadiy Fedorovich
Employee of the Soviet Embassy, ~~Washington~~
Ordered to leave the U.S. immediately for highly improper activities aimed at inducing Soviet refugees to return to the USSR.

MAY:

MALECHNIKOV, Nikolay
Second Secretary, ~~Moscow~~
Reported by the Polish press on 30 May that he had been declared pug by the Polish Government for activities incompatible with diplomatic status.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

1957 (continued)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~September:~~ LITVIN, Mikhail Nikolayevich
Clerk, Naval Attache office, Istanbul Expelled from Turkey for espionage activities and attempting to obtain information on defense establishments.

MALINOV, Aleksey
Chauffeur to the Naval Attache, Istanbul
Requested to leave Turkey for espionage activities.

MARLAGIN, Aleksandr Mikhailovich
Assistant Naval Attache, Istanbul
Requested to leave Turkey within 48 hours for espionage activities and attempting to obtain information on defense establishments.

~~October:~~ SEMENOV, Sergey Sergeyevich
Employee, Military Attache office, Copenhagen
Ordered to leave Denmark for attempting to obtain secret information on Danish defenses.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

123

January: CHERNOV, Leonid Ivanovich
Military and Air Attache, The Hague
Declared pug for seeking information on naval installations.

SUKHACHEV, Georgiy Mikhaylovich
Interpreter, Military Attache office, The Hague
Declared pug for attempting to obtain military information.

SEMIN, Vasily Sergeyevich
Naval Attache, The Hague
Declared pug for seeking information on naval installations.

May: SOLOVYOV, Aleksandr
Member of the Military Attache staff, Bonn.
Expelled for espionage activities.

June: KHROCHKIN, Nikolay Ivanovich
Third Secretary, Soviet Embassy, Washington Declared pug for intelligence activities and attempting to buy classified military publications.

October: SHALKHAROV, Vladimir
Attache, Bangkok
Declared pug on charges of activities dangerous to the peace and security of the nation, and subversive activities in the fields of labor, student, journalists and politics.

TRUSHIN, Yuriy Fedorovich
TASS representative, Bangkok
Declared pug for the same reasons as SHALKHAROV.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

1932

April: AKHROV, Nikolay Vasilyevich
Second Secretary, Soviet Embassy, Mexico City
Declared pug for fostering Communist labor agitation in Mexico.

BELOV, Nikolay Andreyevich
Counselor of Embassy, Buenos Aires
Declared pug for political activities and interference in the internal affairs of Argentina.

BYAKHOV, Dmitriy Alekseyevich
First Secretary, Soviet Embassy, Buenos Aires
Declared pug for fomenting industrial riots.

IVASHOV, Vasily Grigoryevich
Employee, Soviet Commercial Mission, Buenos Aires
Declared pug for fomenting industrial riots.

KHARINOV, Konstantin Petrovich
Cultural Secretary, Buenos Aires
Declared pug for fomenting industrial riots.

KHILISOV, Nikolay Matveyevich
Assistant Naval Attache, Mexico City
Declared pug for fostering Communist labor agitation in Mexico.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

1-2. the pag-actions taken in the case of GLASHOV (1956), SHAPOTALOV (1956) and MOLEY (1957), were not announced to the press or general public.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~